

COOPERATIVE STORE AND STATIONERY OUTLET

The College has an in-house stationery shop being run by the Co-operative society. The shop provides note books, pens, utility products of everyday use to the students. The shop remains open on all working days during College hours. The College has also outsourced a photocopier outlet to provide photocopy, printing, and binding facilities to its students and staff. This outlet also remains open on all working days during College hours.

